

Autism Accommodations for _____

- Provide visual and hands-on instructions for every new task.
- Show rather than verbally explain if not understanding.
- If frustrated, allow time and space to come back to the task. Just say “ok, come when you’re ready”. Don’t verbally cajole—it only makes it worse.
- Make sure _____ is in a safe place.
- _____ may need reminders to stay with a buddy when necessary.
- Provide lots of praise, verbally or high-fives, when _____ is doing something right.

Autism Accommodations for _____

- Provide visual and hands-on instructions for every new task.
- Show rather than verbally explain if not understanding.
- If frustrated, allow time and space to come back to the task. Just say “ok, come when you’re ready”. Don’t verbally cajole—it only makes it worse.
- Make sure _____ is in a safe place.
- _____ may need reminders to stay with a buddy when necessary.
- Provide lots of praise, verbally or high-fives, when _____ is doing something right.

Autism Accommodations for _____

- Provide visual and hands-on instructions for every new task.
- Show rather than verbally explain if not understanding.
- If frustrated, allow time and space to come back to the task. Just say “ok, come when you’re ready”. Don’t verbally cajole—it only makes it worse.
- Make sure _____ is in a safe place.
- _____ may need reminders to stay with a buddy when necessary.
- Provide lots of praise, verbally or high-fives, when _____ is doing something right.

Autism Accommodations for _____

- Provide visual and hands-on instructions for every new task.
- Show rather than verbally explain if not understanding.
- If frustrated, allow time and space to come back to the task. Just say “ok, come when you’re ready”. Don’t verbally cajole—it only makes it worse.
- Make sure _____ is in a safe place.
- _____ may need reminders to stay with a buddy when necessary.
- Provide lots of praise, verbally or high-fives, when _____ is doing something right.